

Introduction to the Montessori Method

Are you new to the Montessori Method? Perhaps you are considering a career in Montessori and are interested in learning more about the Method? Would you like to increase your understanding of Montessori and strengthen your effectiveness in working with parents and children? This 2 day course is designed as an introduction to the Montessori Method. Participants will improve their effectiveness in the Montessori classroom and learn to better relate to children, parents, teachers and school administrators. The course will cover topics such as the Montessori philosophy, history of the Montessori Method, the prepared environment, the role of the adult in the Montessori classroom, and an overview of the core curriculum materials.
